=> Show BlogLocalJson in Vercel

The screenshot shows a web browser window with multiple tabs. The active tab displays a blog page titled "Blog From Local Json -- Liangtinglin, 913410014". The page features a header with navigation links: HOME, MEGA MENU +, DEMO +, BLOG, and CONTACT. Below the header are four blog card components. The first card has an image of coffee cups and is titled "Seven Reasons Why Coffee Is Awesome". The second card has an image of a bridge at night and is titled "Travel To Paris". The third card has an image of hands holding coffee cups and is titled "Coffee Brings Friendship". The fourth card has an image of a coffee cup and is titled "Coffee Make You Feel Good". Each card includes a "LIFESTYLE" category icon and a "Read More" link. The browser's developer tools are open, specifically the Elements panel, which shows the HTML structure and the CSS styles applied to the header element.

=> Github repo with Vercel link

The screenshot shows a GitHub repository page for "114_2N_demo_vercel_liangtinglin". The repository is public and contains one branch and zero tags. The commit history shows an initial commit by "zero2005x" with the message "Initial commit: React blog fullstack project with navbar". Other commits include "Initial commit: React blog fullstack project with navbar" for files like .public, .src, .gitignore, README.md, eslint.config.js, index.html, package.json, and vite.config.js. The repository details sidebar shows 0 stars, 0 forks, and 0 releases. There are also sections for Packages and Deployments.

The screenshot shows a terminal or log output window. At the top, it displays the commit hash "3ae99e0" and the date and time "Wed Oct 15 19:51:00 2025 +0800". Below this, the message "W05-P2: Deploy to Vercel" is visible. The bottom of the window shows a footer with the text "2 / 4".

W05-P3: Use tailwind css to show HomePage_14 in Vercel

The screenshot shows a code editor with two tabs: `vite.config.js` and `HomePage_14.jsx`. The `HomePage_14.jsx` tab contains the following code:

```

1 import React from "react";
2
3 const HomePage_14 = () => {
4   return (
5     ...
6       <h1>HomePage_14</h1>
7       <h2>...>liangtinglin, 913410014</h2>
8
9   );
10 }
11
12 export default HomePage_14;
13

```

The browser window shows the rendered output: `HomePage_14` and `liangtinglin, 913410014`.
